PREFACE.

WE herewith present Volume Nine of the BROOKLINE BLUE BOOK. The new features introduced into the book two years ago have been appreciated and in this issue a large number of our patrons announce their "at home" day or "summer residence." We are very glad to publish any matter or information that will be interesting or useful to our readers. In a very few cases the information came too late for insertion.

We appreciate the orders received both from subscribers and advertisers, and trust the latter will receive a fair equivalent for their expenditure.

We issue at the same time our Suburban Blue Book which this year includes the elite lists of Brookline, Newton, Cambridge and Dorchester, making over 400 pages, with a map of each place.

Very respectfully,

EDWARD A. JONES.

WHAT IS A BLUE BOOK?

A FAMILY AND SOCIETY DIRECTORY, containing a list of names and addresses of the leading citizens of the Town or City, etc., names appearing both alphabetically and in street order, according to numbers, giving Mr. and Mrs., society and professional ladies, etc.

The work is printed on fine, heavy, calendered paper, gilt-edged, and bound in blue cloth and gold leaf, in the most elegant and artistic style. It will be found invaluable for all who would be thoroughly informed in regard to the residents of the town, to know their post-office address in case they are away in the summer, etc.

It will be found one of the best advertising mediums, inasmuch as it is taken by a large proportion of the residents, thereby reaching the homes and ladies as no other directory can. It circulates in the homes of those who can afford to buy what they see advertised. If the article is new and useful, or if it is an improvement on something they have, they are able to discard the old article and buy the new.

It is an attractive ornament for the parlor or the library, where, being always on hand, it is constantly referred to not only by members of the family, but by their friends and visitors as well.

The work also contains the Street Directory, Map, List of Churches, Societies, etc.

The SUBURBAN BLUE BOOK contains 13,000 to 15,000 names and addresses made up from Brookline, Cambridge, Newton and Dorchester Blue Books. It is issued every spring. Price $2.00.

BROOKLINE	BLUE	BOOK,	containing	1500	names.
CAMBRIDGE	"	"	"	4200	"
DORCHESTER	"	"	"	4900	"
NEWTON	"	"	"	3400	"

Price of each, $1.00.

These Blue Books, like any directory, are for use, and are kept within reach for ready reference. By subscribing each year, at the small cost of one dollar, you have a valuable book at hand to consult when information is required.

Security Safe Deposit Vaults,

EQUITABLE BUILDING, BOSTON, MASS.

VENTILATION PERFECT.

Residents of BROOKLINE and vicinity having occasion to keep SECURITIES in BOSTON would find the convenient. They are located on the line of street cars from the B. & A. Station to the Post-Office. The vaults are provided with every safeguard and at night are placed in the direct charge of the police of Boston by our own Electric Burglar Alarm.

"SECURITY" VAULTS

The use of the magnificent Reading Room is FREE to all safeholders. It would be found especially convenient for business men who have occasion to visit Boston frequently, but do not require an office, as a convenient rendezvous for business appointments or correspondence. A cabinet of drawers in this room as a receptacle for account, letter or check books or samples, completes the requirements for desk room. The use of this superb room is alone worth the price of a safe. Visitors are always welcome.
